

Call for papers

XIV A.D. SAEVLVM AVGVSTVM

Lisbon, 24-26 September 2014

In 2014 it will be two thousand years since the death of one of the most decisive characters in History. To him we owe, for example, a considerable part of what we know today as Europe. His importance was such that even today historians designate his time as "The Age of Augustus". This is more than enough reason to commemorate this same year as the "Augustan Year". Therefore, The Centre for Classical Studies, the Centre for History and the Centre for Archaeology of the University of Lisbon and the Centre for Art History and Artistic Research of the University of Évora, the University of Madeira and the Università degli Studi di Bari – Aldo Moro, with the support of the Portuguese Society of Classical Studies, decided to organize an international conference to be held in the next 24, 25 and 26 September 2014, in Lisbon, the ancient Olisipo, city of the roman province of Lusitania.

Researchers from different areas of knowledge, from Antiquity to Present, are invited to present papers on topics related to "The Age of Augustus." Paper proposals must fall within one of the following themes:

- Art and Archaeology
- History
- Literature (Epic, Lyric, Drama, Philosophy, Historiography, etc...)
- Reception (Literature, Film, Music, Arts, Politics, etc...)

The congress will be organized in plenary sessions with key-note speakers, and parallel sessions fulfilled with paper proposals.

- Working languages: Portuguese, English, French, Italian and Spanish.
- Papers presentations: 20 minutes.

We welcome:

- individual proposals for a 20-minute paper (ca. 500 words);
- joint proposals for thematic panels consisting of 3 papers (ca. 350 words per paper).

Please include the following information with your proposal:

- the full title of your paper / of your panel and respective papers;
- an abstract (ca. 500 words per paper), eventually with a short list of bibliographical references;
