Call for papers International Conference SEEC Castellón & Valencia

The Delegation of Castellón and Valencia of the Spanish Society of Classical Studies organizes for the next 26th and 27th of April of 2018 an International Conference titled 'The margins of thought: heterodoxy, magic and knowledges of salvation'. The Conference will be held at the University Jaime I of Castellón de la Plana.

The papers that pass the filter of the correction by the peer-system will be published in a volume throughout the year 2019. All researchers working on issues related to magical, mythical and religious thought in both the Ancient World and the history of Europe to the present day are invited to participate. Contributions about the field of postsocratic schools of thought can also participate at the conference.

To pre-register just send an e-mail to seecvalc@gmail.com, indicating in the subject "Conference 2018". It should include a title proposal and a short summary of a maximum of 150 words before the 31st of December of 2017. Once the communication has been accepted by the Organizing Committee with the advice of the Scientific Committee (on the 20th of January of 2018), the registration will have to be formalized before the 15th of February. For the members of the Spanish Society of Classical Studies, the tuition fee will be 20€; for non-members, 50€. In both cases, the registration entitles the publication of the work, provided that the reviewers of the works give their approval.
